

Home Carer Workers jobs!!

Are you compassionate and caring, always wanting to help people who are physically struggling to meet their personal care needs. If yes, then you will be right person to provide care to our older people living in their own homes.

We welcome and encourage job applications from experienced and non-experienced people and inclusion of job seekers to build a strong and dedicated team of home carers.

The job

- Assisting with all elements of personal care, to ensure clients are supported in being as independent as possible
- Assisting clients with getting washed and dressed.
- Preparing meals and serving them with meals and fluids
- Prompting and assisting with taking medication
- Carrying out light household tasks
- Shopping , laundry, and other small errands as required
- Offering companionship and helping build clients confidence and independence
-

About you, you must have:

- Commitment to caring for people who are infirm
- Compassionate and caring values with respect of dignity and humanity
- Empathetic with good listening skills.
- Willingness to work antisocial

Benefits

- Paid training
- Paid DBS check
- Paid induction
- Annual leave and Pensions contributions
- Hourly rate of £11.44 increasing to more than hrly rate on weekends,
- Paid travel time